

1 Dead, 2 Burned In Bomb Explosion

A Jackson youth was killed and his two brothers burned when an artillery shell taken from a Camp Grayling range exploded at their K.P. Lake summer home Sunday.

The youngest brother, Joseph Anderson, 17, was killed by the 105 Projectile shell containing white phosphorus. James Anderson, 21, received 2nd and 3rd degree burns over 50 percent of his body and is in serious condition at an Ann Arbor hospital. Michael Anderson, 25, received small burn spots and is reportedly in good condition in Ann Arbor. The injured brothers were flown to Ann Arbor shortly after the accident at 6 p.m.

The artillery shell is believed to have come from a range near K.P. Lake and the youngest brother reportedly was attempting to dismantle the missile.

The parents of the brothers are Dr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson, of Jackson, longtime summer visitors to K.P. Lake. The explosion occurred near their summer home. The brothers' parents, who were nearby on the beach, were the first to reach the scene after the explosion and summon help.

Guardsman Arrested For Criminal Sexual Assault

An Ohio guardsman was arrested Saturday for criminal sexual assault after allegedly assaulting a 31-year-old Grayling woman in a parking lot and attempting to force her into a car. He was the fourth guardsman charged with criminal sexual assault in the county within one month.

The alleged attack took place in the Holiday Inn parking lot at 12:30 a.m. Saturday and a tracking dog from the Michigan State Police Post was used to find the suspect later.

In other police news, $2500 worth of photography equipment was stolen from Camp Grayling last Thursday from a photography laboratory.

The friendly president of Grayling State Bank, Jack Alef, will be roasted by a panel of Grayling's finest Thursday, Aug. 26, at the new Camp Grayling Armory. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. with a prime rib dinner at 7:30 p.m. followed by a cash bar. The first two roasts featuring Emil Kraus and Whitey Madsen were sell-outs and tickets are going fast this year so get your tickets early from The Avalanche, Mac's Drugs, Grayling State Bank, the Chamber of Commerce, Scheys Country House, WQON, Marty VanDeVen, Paul Thomson, Irv McIsaac, George Stancil or John Naour.

Canadian Bagpipers To Perform Aug. 24 On Grayling State Bank Lawn at 2 p.m.

A Canadian military group of bagpipers from the London, Ontario, area will be performing Tuesday, Aug. 24, on the lawn of the Grayling State Bank. The bagpipers will be the second band performance on the bank lawn this summer.

Grayling State Bank President Jack Alef previously arranged for a performance by the well-known Indiana military band. Their concert, which helped kick off the Milltown Festival weekend, drew many spectators to the shady, beautiful lawn at the corner of Peninsular and Michigan Ave.

The bagpipers will start playing their attention-drawing instruments at 2 p.m. for the performance. The public is invited free of charge.

The Canadian bagpipers will also be performing Thursday, Aug. 26, at the Camp Grayling parade field along with the Grand Traverse Highlanders Bagpipers band. That performance begins at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited free of charge.

Voter Turnout 31% In Crawford Primary

Nearly 2,200 voters in Crawford County - about 31 percent of the registered voters - turned out at the polls last week to decide four local races and join in state voting.

In the state race for governor, county voters followed the statewide voting on the Democratic side casting 342 votes for James Blanchard, the winner, to 182 for William Fitzgerald, the runner-up. Kammer had 56, Pierce 49, Ferency 45, Safran 12, and Plawek 9.

On the Republican side, county voters differed from statewide voting by giving L. Brooks Patterson 494 votes and James Brickley 379. Richard Headlee, the winner, received only 218 votes. Jack Welborn had 45 votes.

For U.S. Senator, Democrat Don Riegle had 545 votes to win his party nomination. Republican candidate Philip Ruppe, the statewide winner, also took the most votes in Crawford County with 715. Republican William Ballenger had 130 votes, Rep. Robert Huber 113, and Rep. Deane Baker 71.

In the 10th District U.S. Representative race balloting, Democrat Don Albosta took 432 votes and Republican Lawrence Reed took 688 votes.

In the 11th District U.S. Representative race, Democrat Kent Bourland, the overall winner, received 42 votes. Dem. Ted Albert received 45 in our county and Dem. Sven Johnson received 28. Republican Bob Davis won his party nomination with 135 votes.

In the state senate 36th district races, Dale Shelton won the Democratic nomination and received the most votes in the county for his party with 281. Dem. Michael Mack received 152 and Dem. Edward Josephs received 96. On the Republican side, Connie Binsfeld, the winner overall, picked up 394 votes here. Prescott had 198, Keipert 195, Webb 113, and Andrews 65.

In the state house 103rd district voting Republican Ralph Ostling had 884 votes and Democrat Lewis Cox had 433 votes.

County-wide, an unofficial count showed 238 spoiled ballots. Election officials said many ballots had votes for Republican and Democratic candidates - which is not allowed in the Michigan primary. In one Grayling Twp. precinct 50 ballots were spoiled.

Buckeye Brigade In Annual Training

by SSGT. Davida Matthews
Camp Grayling-Nearly 4,000 Ohio National Guard members from the 73D Infantry Brigade (Separate) are in Camp Grayling to complete their annual two weeks of training.

The Brigade, Ohio's largest National Guard fighting force, is headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, and commanded by Brig. Gen. Andrew G. Shalkos. The "Buckeye Brigade" is designated as "separate" because in addition to infantry, artillery and tank units, within its ranks are all the elements of a complete army including legal, postal, medical, finance and aviation sections, just to name a few.

Soldiers in the National Guard train to the same state of readiness as their active army counterparts yet there are certain areas of training that cannot be fully exercised within the time constraints of a weekend drill. Two weeks of concentrated training annually provides an opportunity for extended exercises and a forum for interaction between units that normally do not work together yet would co-exist and depend upon each other if the Ohio National Guard was called to active duty.

Lovells Battles DNR Over Clear-cutting

by Jon Thompson

Lovells Township residents have locked horns with the DNR demanding the state agency follow their local zoning laws when authorizing clear-cutting in the township.

In a meeting Friday with DNR regional forester Don Torchia and Grayling district wildlife biologist Ray Perez, about 40 Lovells Twp. residents presented three demands for the DNR to leave a 400-foot buffer zone along lakes and streams, a 200-foot strip along county and other roads leading to private homes, and a 200-foot strip by private property when clear-cutting.

Torchia and Perez went to the Lovells Twp. hall Friday to discuss a proposed 1983 cut on three sections south of County Road 612 between K.P. Lake and Lovells. The large turnout of residents, however, used the meeting to comment on DNR clear-cutting policy in the township.

Lloyd Stahl, who helped write the Lovells zoning laws, wanted to know why the DNR ignored local zoning zones when they were patterned after the DNR Natural Rivers zoning proposals and federal zoning outlines. Lovells Twp. has a 400-foot greenbelt law around lakes and streams but recent cutting at K.P. Lake came as close as 200 feet from the lake.

Torchia said with 25-30 townships in his area he isn't aware of all local zoning laws. He said both sides need to make more of an effort to communicate. He said this meeting was a beginning.

Walt Leibold, Lovells Twp. Trustee, said the DNR shouldn't be immune to the local zoning laws, and he asked for a statement in writing from the DNR saying they would follow the Township's wishes on clear-cutting.

Torchia said in most cases he saw no problem with following the township's demands for buffer zones, but he didn't have the authority to make a written agreement. He said that would have to come from Lansing.

Torchia said he will arrange a meeting with a DNR legal expert from Lansing and the township residents. He said he wanted the Lansing man to come to Lovells so he could understand loud and clear the feelings here. Torchia said a letter trying to explain the situation here couldn't convey the strong feelings.

Also arranged as a result See Lovells on Page 2

Beaver Creek Voters Give Fire Dept. Green Light

Beaver Creek voters approved starting their own fire dept. by nearly a 2-1 vote last week and now all systems are go in the township as the groundwork is laid for the new dept.

The township has already petitioned the DNR asking for a 350 by 250 foot piece of land at the intersection of M-76 and Seven Mile as a site for the fire hall. The site borders on a black top road and is in the middle of a network of roads to reach all parts of the township.

Charles Gordon, chairman of a special fire dept. committee, said 24 volunteers have already started training to man the dept. Ed Holtcamp, a Michigan State Police consultant, has been conducting the training.

The millage rate to cover the first year operation costs of the new dept. has been estimated at 1.3 mills but has not yet been set by Beaver Creek Township Supervisor Cletis Spears.

Gordon said the start-up date for the dept. will largely depend on the construction of the building. Once the building is finished, the dept. would probably be ready to go. He said a pumper/tanker truck will take 50 to 60 days to be custom built for the township. The building is expected to be large enough for three bays.

Currently the township buys protection from Grayling Fire Dept., Lyon Twp., and the Village of Roscom-mon. Buying protection in the last year had become increasingly difficult as Lyon Twp. and the Village of Roscommon became worried the additional area to cover would hinder coverage in their own districts. Coverage of the new, large $60,000,000 Weyerhaeuser plant added to the difficulties of buying protection. The new fire hall site is located about three miles from Weyerhaeuser.

After the millage is established for the first year of operation, township residents will conduct a special fire dept. meeting at the annual township meeting next year to discuss funding and decide on operational millage.

of the meeting will be a township committee to work on clear-cutting proposals with Torchia and DNR foresters. Torchia suggested the committee and township supervisor Fred Schaibly said the township board will appoint 3-7 members.

Leibold requested a written statement from the DNR because he said the DNR had promised buffer zones in the township at a similar meeting after clear-cutting for Kirtland's Warbler. For three years the DNR and Twp. had worked together with few problems. However, the DNR didn't inform the township about the K.P. Lake clear-cutting - beyond the legal advertisements in newspapers - and their anger surfaced at the meeting last Friday.

Stahl said the meeting was an exact duplicate of the 1979 meeting and it didn't work last time.

"We have to try harder this time to make it this time," he said.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Who was Guilty of Shooting our President?

Millions of Americans saw the young man on television news as he deliberately attempted to murder the president of the United States. He used exploding bullets, left a note indicating his intent, and systematically carried out his ungodly act. In a supreme example of Humanistic injustice, our judicial system found the young man not guilty by reason of insanity. Our system of law again showed disregard for an innocent man who occupied the highest civil office in our nation, while going to extremes to show mercy to a social misfit.

Humanism believes every human being is just an animal who has evolved to a higher form of intelligence. Since they believe man is a god unto himself, he must be justified for everything he does. When man does that which is not socially acceptable, then society has failed him, and society is responsible for his crime. This kind of justice will lead to disrespect and anarchy.

The Bible makes man individually responsible for his actions. Let us examine some of our improper thinking. We are told that alcohol is responsible for over half of the deaths on our highways. We have laws which say we are responsible to keep our automobiles under control at all times. Why do we have no enforced laws which require us to keep our bodies under control? When a person consumes alcohol or drugs which render his mental state temporarily insane, is there any logically or scriptural reason he should be free of guilt for his crimes? There are literally millions of alcoholics and potheads across America. Must we the people accept the guilt for their future crimes against our lives and our property?

All of us could be understanding if one had a brain tumor or other physical disorder beyond his control. We dare not continue to tolerate the wilful destruction of the mind and the consequent actions which follow, without holding persons individually responsible for both the process and product of their sin. God deals with all sin at either Calvary or Hell. Every individual is responsible for his sin before God. May we the people hold man accountable for his crimes while he is alive on planet earth. From Our Corner ...

In case you missed us, we have been on three days of R & R...so don't expect too much wisdom out of the ol' fella's corner this week...

Tom and Marie St. Germain invited Thelma and I about a month ago to take a little trip into a portion of the Upper Peninsula where they were from...we're glad we went...it's like another world in the U.P., and a lot of room...

Our trip took us to Seney, Grand Marais, Munising, Marquette, Negaunee, Ishpeming, L'Anse, Baraga, Crystal Falls, Iron Mountain, Florence, Wisconsin, Norway, Escanaba, Manistique and then the trip to St. Ignace and back into the Lower Peninsula...

Our overnight stops were Seney, Baraga and Manistique...on Saturday, Tom's sister, Mary, and husband Frem Ross took us up to the Sturgeon River gorge, which is quite a sight...really back in the brush but well worth the time...it is something like the Cut River Bridge between Manistique and St. Ignace...

We stopped in Florence for a little while and while there we saw a first as far as we are concerned, Tom and I were in Wally's Bar and Pool Room for an orange pop while the girls looked around the main street, a young bride and groom and their best man came in and while the bride sat at a table in her white gown, the boys played a couple games of pool while they waited for the reception to start...Florence is a town of about 650 and Wally told us there were six bars in the town...

Going from Munising to Marquette we came up a small hill and around a curve and noticed a State Police car with flashing lights on...there was a tractor with double tandem laying on its side...no other vehicles were involved, never noticed so many wheels until you see them from underneath...

To climax our trip we came upon another first...between Manistique and St. Ignace we were slowed down and had to wait to get clear passage to go around a covered wagon train...that's right, the group consisted of three covered wagons and a water wagon plus at least 20-25 riding horses and mules...we don't know where they came from or where they were going, but on the sides of the wagons was a sign "Vision Quest", the group seemed to be mostly young people...never before have we been stopped on a major highway, U.S. 2, by a wagon train...

This takes care of our three day R & R relaxation in the Upper Peninsula...

A couple of weeks ago we booboored...sorry Mel...in our corner the week we mentioned about Thelma playing golf with my nephew Brooks and wife Carol we left out the one who made up the four-some...we received a note over the weekend from Mel Bankov of Houghton Lake about the column and he stated we owed him a couple orange pops by doing so...Mel has a commercial printing shop in Houghton Lake and grew up with Brooks while in school in Gaylord...quite a few people in Grayling will remember Mel when he worked at the Avalanche and was an avid bowler...If you get up to Grayling, Mel, let us know, and we will take care of our debt...

This takes care of this weeks effort...goodnight T.J., Stefany and Amber...and to all our readers have a nice weekend, fall is just about upon us...

5 Crawford Co. Avalanche RSVP Reports

by Sherry Haag, Director

Welcome to news of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program.

Federal legislation to ban mandatory retirement is facing growing opposition. Earlier this year, Pres. Reagan came out publicly in support of abolishing mandatory retirement, but is now leaning towards more restrictive guidelines which would only dis-allow indiscriminate firings of old workers, not their demotion or the refusal by employers to hire them.

Many see his turnout as the result of pressure from some business groups that fear lifting the ban will sharply increase age discrimination litigation and have an adverse effect on other segments of the labor force, particularly women and minorities.

Sen. John Heinz (R-Pa.), co-sponsor of S. 2617 which would ban mandatory retirement for most employees, counters these objections with a U.S. Labor Dept. study which says these fears are "generally unfounded" because older workers tend to seek different jobs than other workers. S. 2617 is in the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee; H.R. 6576 is in the House Education and Labor Committee. Both prohibit forced retirement by removing the mandatory retirement age but leave in place "bona fide occupational qualification" exemptions and the right of employers to retire executives and high policy decision makers at age 65.

The committees are awaiting an opinion from Pres. Reagan's Cabinet council on whether or not Reagan will reinstate his original support of the measures.

Let your feelings be known to your representatives. They work for us and need to know how we feel. RSVP is presently in need of volunteers to run the concession stand for the Milltown Festival Committee at the Sept. 4-5 Arts & Crafts Show. Duties will be selling hot dogs, coffee, and drinks and baked goods.

Don't forget, August 26 RSVP is having a picnic. Place will be Timberview Manor on the river in Frederic. Transportation will be provided and RSVP provides the hot dogs, buns, dessert and drink. Please bring a dish to pass and your own table service. Reservations by August 24. Call 348-4341 or 348-8322.

Par For The Course

This seems to have been Jeannette Kitchen's lucky week. In regular play on Wednesday, August 11, she came in with a 43, a record for her, low net of 29 and low putts of 13. Dorothy Walker tied with her for low putts and Marge Walker chipped in on No. 6 and Babe Aderente chipped in on No. 1. For Flight B, Donna Pottorff had a 49 while also having low net of 34 and low putts of 13 which was aided by a chip-in on No. 9. Tying with Donna for low net was Nora Fraser and Doris Birtcher also with 34.

Flight C's Dorothy Kaseman took low gross with 55 and low net of 32 while Faith Stripe tied with a 55. Flo House put in 15 putts and Caroline DiPonio had a bird on No. 2.

In regular play on Monday night, August 16, Donna Pottorff and Kay Ellen Juntilla came in with a low of 52 and Donna had only 15 putts. Phyllis Scheer chipped in on two holes and Gloria Nielsen and Ricki Stahl also had chip-ins. Kay Ellen took 18 on holes 2, 4 & 5. Jean Raab had the most improved ringer score.

Next week the women will vote on their officers for the 1983 summer season and the final night will be August 31 with a big potluck dinner following golf.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover Park Interpreter

During the summer when there are many people in the Tall Timber, it would seem there could not be a place where a person could be alone even for a few minutes. I like people, but now and then I like to listen to what nature is saying in the form of bird songs or the wind in the treetops. The Tall Timber fascinates me and within its sun-dappled shadows, there are two places that allow a measure of solitude. One is near a small, mossy-bottomed depression sometimes filled with water, but often not. Its location provides a place for a few moments of quiet despite its proximity to a busy foot trail.

The other place is a little-used foot trail originating just beyond the Monarch. As foot trails go, it is not long and over the years it has become littered with nature's leavings, pine needles mixed with maple leaves and diminutive hemlock cones. There are branches, twigs and even hefty tree trunks deposited by the wind. Where it starts, the timber is tall and stately. As it winds on its way, it becomes crowded by large Eastern Hemlocks which have given it the name Hemlock Trail. In the Hemlocks the trail is sheltered from view of those walking between the Monarch and the Logging Camp by a low ridge. Only the sound of cars on M-93 or a loud shout reach your ears and that is garbled by the shielding ridges, trees and vegetation. As it nears its end, the trail is heavily shaded by a thick stand of young maples, the leaves of which have carpeted the forest floor with the stuff to make the soil rich and fertile. As it sneaks unseen to the Logging Camp, it descends a gentle hill through larger maple and beech trees. The quiet of the Hemlocks and thick maples is disrupted by the squeak of the pump at the well house, but in the few minutes it takes to walk the trail, the spirit is refreshed.

Plan For Young Americans Next Year

With its major summer project - the sponsorship of the American Musical Theatre's Young Americans' four Grayling concerts - completed, the Crawford County Arts Council returns to business as usual, beginning with a meeting to be held on Tuesday, August 24, at 7:30 p.m., in the Conference Room of Northern National Bank. All people interested in becoming involved in the promotion of the visual and performing arts in the Grayling area are invited to attend.

The CCAC wishes to acknowledge the residents of Grayling and the surrounding area for their enthusiastic support of this venture, which the Council intends to turn into an annual summer event. The entire staff and all of the cast and crew members of the American Musical Theatre were impressed with and grateful for the warm welcome they received from all four of the audiences that filled the Joseph Stripe Auditorium of Grayling High School. They look forward to returning to the friendly, small-town atmosphere of Grayling in 1983 as much as the Arts Council looks forward to their return.

The CCAC would like to make special note of the eleven area businesses, whose advertising made the production of the programs possible: Grayling State Bank, Northern Michigan Land and Oil Corporation, Weyerhaeuser, Northern National Bank, The Grayling Mercantile Company, WQON Radio Station, Weaver's Gift Shop and The Cook's Cottage, The Holiday Inn of Grayling, Chief Shoppenagon Motor Hotel, Flowers by Josie, and Cornell Real Estate and Insurance.

The Arts Council recognizes the support of the local media: WGRY and WQON Radio Station and The Crawford County Avalanche. Their unflagging support greatly increased our publicity.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey, I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every supporter to my campaign. I am very optimistic that next time we will be successful in our endeavor.

I noticed while I was out on the campaign trail - that our local School Board is trying to Raise our taxes Again...

I must have been Delusively to think that our school board would be satisfied with their victory (June 14th) of 16.9 mills for three years.

William Diedrich was quoted "Passage of the renewal guarantees stability in the school district for three years." "Now, we can get back to educating our youngsters instead of the business of money management."

Let us go back in time for a moment. Back to May 6, 1982, let's envision a front page of the Crawford County Avalanche, in the upper right column, large bold print "Schools Propose 1-Mill Reduction". The story goes on to say the school will give us the taxpayers 1-mill if we vote in the reduction for three years.

So, we, the voters, give them their 16.9 mills for three years, with the promise (by the school board) that this will be enough to run the school system, open the Frederic school, hire back 15 (laid off) teachers, reinstate the sports programs, open the libraries, etc., etc., etc.

What Happened???

It has been less than 2 months and now they are talking about "Increasing Property Taxes" again.

Just where does the school board think our senior and retired citizens on fixed incomes, are supposed to get the Extra money to pay these increased taxes???

What would our school board have them do? Should they give up Food. Hey!! Maybe they could sell their Homes, maybe they could sell all they worked for during their working years, so they can pay their property taxes.

Who's next??? Do the townships, or maybe the City of Grayling want More Money too???

I think the whole idea is opprobrious....

Sincerely, Herluf Moshier

P.S. Thanks again for the votes of confidence, we didn't win, but the loss is not entirely ours.

State gets Federal Aid for Hazardous Waste Cleanup

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Seven sites in Michigan are among 45 around the country getting federal funds to clean up hazardous wastes.

The money, released on a matching 90 percent federal funds for 10 percent state funds, comes from a five-year, $1.6 billion program.

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency officials earlier had selected a Gratiot County landfill for the cleanup program.

The seven additional sites include one in Dalton Township, Muskegon County; Battle Creek; Utica; Swartz Creek; Oakland County; Cadillac; and Rose Township, Oakland County.

The state had already declared a toxic substance emergency at Berlin and Farro in Swartz Creek.

State Department of Natural Resources officials estimates $30-$50 million in federal funds will be spent over the next three or four years to clean up the dumps.

The Environmental Protection Agency authorized $249,000 for emergency work at the Liquid Disposal site in Utica to remove some of the health hazards. Two men were killed as the result of a chemical accident at the site in January.

Michigan and New Jersey had the largest number of sites selected for the cleanup program, but Governor William G. Milliken said that is the result of better recognition of the problem.

The cleanup projects will involve either a direct federal contract managed by the U.S. Corps of Engineers, or cooperative agreements with the state taking charge of the private cleanup through voluntary or court-ordered action.

Meanwhile, Milliken is urging federal officials to select Michigan to run a pilot program under which companies would be given the chance to monitor their compliance with federal and state environmental laws.

The initial environmental auditing program would involve facilities with good compliance records and who volunteer to participate.

Milliken asked for the designation in a request to U.S. Environmental Protection Administrator Jane Gorsuch.

If accepted, the Department of Natural Resources would work with a citizen advisory group to develop guidelines for an acceptable program, under which companies would be required to show they have sufficient internal procedures to detect and correct problems.

In a related matter, permanent regulations setting standards for the transporting of all spent nuclear fuel and larger quantities of radioactive waste have been filled with the Secretary of State and became effective mid-July.

As with temporary rules signed last summer by the governor, the new permanent rules, developed by the Department of Public Health and the State Fire Marshall's Division of the Department of State Police, include strict testing requirements for containers carrying atomic materials over any of the state's four major bridges at Detroit, Port Huron, the Straits of Mackinac and Sault Ste. Marie.

The rules also require that a shipper must secure prior approval for transporting the materials through the state; must furnish evidence of adequate communications capability and an acceptable safety inspection of the transporting vehicle; and must provide an accident emergency plan.

Shipments also may be inspected at any time by state health department personnel.

Another Era Passes In Crawford Co. History

By Fay Bovee

Old guides never die, they just drift away. And somewhere in that promised land, Norval Stephan is drifting along on a clear, leisurely stream instructing his fisherman where to cast that fly just as he did hundreds of times in his lifetime on the famed AuSable River.

With the passing of Norval Stephan, 75, on July 26, passes another era of the history of Crawford County. We believe he was one of the last, or the last, of the old-time guides who paddled, poled, caressed and cajoled the stream into giving up its wily trout to the lucky or the skilled.

As a grandson of the original Stephan pioneers, Peter and Helene Stephan, he was born on the river and spent the greatest part of his life there. He was born in 1907 to John and Cynthia Stephan at Edgewater, site of the original Stephan homestead, just upriver from Stephan bridge. His father died at an early age and Aunt Tiny, as she was known to all who came to her famous resort, married John Knecht.

Norval began his long career as a river guide at about 14 when he served as camp boy for his cousin, Bill Christenson. In those days, guiding trips were of several days duration, camping along the river bank and then being hauled back upstream by wagon or in some cases poling back upstream to the original departure point.

Norval grew up at Edgewater, graduated from Grayling High School and attended Michigan State Agricultural College earning a certificate as a tester of dairy herds. This work was brief as the beginning of the depression ended the funds. Returning again to his native county, after his marriage to Tressa Vallad in 1931, he started a dairy herd on the Knecht farm north of Wakeley corner. But the lure of the river which he had grown to love, took them to Camp Swastika above Wakeley Bridge, owned by the Knight family of Toledo. Upon the declaration of war with Germany, the name was changed to Camp Thunderbird.

When Norval was not busy at the lodge, a job they held for 33 years, he was busy at other jobs, mostly guiding, for well-known clubs such as Whippoorwill, Twin Pine, Pab-won-nee, Wa Wa Sum, Richardson's and of course, his old home, Edgewater, owned by his mother in the early years and home from 1954 on, by his daughter, Pat, and husband, Bernie Fowler.

He was familiar with both the AuSable and all of its branches as well as the Manistee. In more recent years he had guided for the newer resorts, Jim's Canoe Livery and Gates' Lodge.

Even though most of his summers were spent guiding, in the fall he served as a guide for bird hunters. He found time also to drive school bus and serve on the board of the old Feldhauser School, served in World War II, served on the COOR Intermediate Board, became an ordained elder in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, was a counselor at church camps in which he taught, naturally, fly-tying, and following a family tradition, built the famed and unique AuSable River boats.

He was proud of his family heritage and at the 100th year Stephan reunion in 1979, led the group to the family cemetery and along with his cousin, the late Herbert Stephan, gave much of the family history to the younger generations.

Befitting his love of the land, his son, John, of Soldotna, Alaska, handmade his father's casket of white pine and red cedar. John & Susan with their children, Paul and Alison, had spent four weeks here in June & July working on his labor of love for his father. Ray Stephan, oldest living descendant of John Stephan, Sr. upholstered it for his uncle Norval. And thus he was buried in the family cemetery high on the hill overlooking the homestead.

Norval never retired from guiding. The summer of 1981 was one of the busiest he had had in many years and he fully intended to continue, but ill health prevented him from returning to the river this spring.

He lived long enough to have seen the fifth generation of his family, his grandchildren, Gail, Stuart, and Jeff Fowler, grow up on the river at Edgewater.

Time and the river go on and with it only the memory of a part of the river's history remains. Norval Stephan was happy to be part of it.

Sibs for Kids

What does a Sib give a Kid? Well mostly friendship, but also some affection, advice, or guidance and probably even more important than that — Time!

As parents, the one thing we are always short of is time & in a one-parent home it may be even more difficult to find quality time to spend with a child. That's where a Sib can help. A Big brother or sister to stop by & visit or take the little Brother or Sister on a short excursion can be a meaningful time for everyone involved.

It can give the parent some "breathing room" & some time to refresh themselves. It can help to bolster the one-parent in that very difficult role of trying to be both father & mother.

The child benefits from the supportive role of the Big Brother or Sister & the relationship of another caring person in their life.

If you have some time & care about Kids call Sibs for Kids today at 348-2841 ext. 262 or stop by the office on West M-72. (just over the tracks)

Registration at Grayling Christian School

Registration is now underway for the 1982-83 school year at Grayling Christian School. Parents of returning students are requested to bring or send your $50 registration fee to Grayling Christian School. All parents of prospective new students are encouraged to phone 348-2264 or 348-9220 for more information or an appointment to discuss the school.

Grayling Christian School is a Christian Day School operated by Calvary Baptist Church of Grayling. Federal government regulations require us to make public our policy on discrimination. We wish the public to know that we make our public statement on discrimination in protest of government involvement in church affairs. Students are accepted into Grayling Christian School without regard to national origin, race, sex, creed, or religion. We do insist that students make a willful choice to attend the school, as opposed to being forced to attend by their parents. We also insist that the parents support the school, as opposed to criticizing or challenging the authority and ministry of the school.

Grayling Christian School offers nothing new. It is simply a return to the basic values of the old one room school which built America into the greatest nation on earth. Students must first learn to read and then read to learn. They must maintain a balance studying Math, Science, English and Social Studies. The center of all studies is God and the Bible as the source of all truth.

Grayling Christian School stresses individual responsibility to three basic institutions, the home, the government and the church. Students are instructed to honor and respect their parents; to be loyal and patriotic citizens of the United States and to be obedient servants of God and His Word.

New Teacher at Grayling Christian School

Mr. Michael P. Corlew has accepted the position of supervisor at Grayling Christian School. Mr. Corlew and his wife Lynette, formerly Lynette Niederer, and their son Matt will be returning home to family and friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Corlew are graduates of Grayling High School. Mr. Corlew received his B.A. from Grand Rapids Baptist College in 1975. He received his teacher certification at Grand Valley State College in 1978.

Mr. Corlew worked as a Youth Work Supervisor at the Wedgwood Acres Christian Youth Home in Wyoming, Michigan, during 1975-1978. His work included counseling and case work guidance. Mr. Corlew gained experience teaching in the Accelerated Christian Education system at the Immanuel Christian School in Roscommon, during 1978-1981.

As an American patriot, Mr. Corlew has done more than talk about love of country. Mr. Corlew spent his share of time in combat in Vietnam while serving his country in the United States Marine Corps during 1967-1969. Mr. Corlew was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army in 1981. He is at present serving in the National Guard at Camp Grayling.

Calvary Baptist Church is pleased to introduce Mr. Corlew to the Grayling community as a young man with the kind of strong character, courage and spiritual commitment necessary to continue the high standards of Grayling Christian School into the 7th year of operation.

Church of God Buys St. John Lutheran Church

The Community Church of God is happy to announce the recent purchase of the building at 501 Michigan Avenue from the St. John Lutheran Church. We would like to welcome visitors or anyone seeking a church home to worship with us as we gather to praise Jesus Christ and grow in the knowledge of His will through His Word.

Few Object at Truth Taxation Meetings

Truth in taxation public hearings in Crawford County have drawn little response and few objections.

Under a new law, government units assessing more than one mill have to hold public hearings to inform taxpayers when more revenues will be collected because of increased S.E.V. values.

Recently, South Branch and Frederic Townships and the C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District held truth in taxation meetings.

In South Branch, 15 persons attended and officials said the main concern of those attending was they didn't understand the truth in taxation law. The public notices that must be posted saying there will be a public hearing on increasing property taxes confuse some people who think local officials are trying to sneak a hike in the millage rate by them.

The millage rate remains the same but because S.E.V.'s went up, more revenues will be collected.

The Truth and Taxation law says the government unit collecting the extra revenues must let the taxpayers know.

In South Branch, the increase amounted to about a 6.9 percent increase in revenues or about $2,600.

In Frederic Township, the increase in revenues amount to about 8.5 percent.

The C.O.O.R. district increase in revenues amount to about 6.9 percent.

Crawford AuSable School District will be holding a public hearing Aug. 23 to comply with truth in taxation laws even though the district recently voted on a new millage rate.

Farewell Open House For Rev. Spencer Sunday

Rev. George E. Spencer, pastor of the Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church will become the pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville, Michigan on September 1st. The appointment made by Bishop Edsel Ammons, the resident bishop for the United Methodist Church in Michigan was announced recently by Dr. Robert Selberg, District Superintendent of the Ann Arbor District of the United Methodist Church.

Belleville is the western most community in Wayne County along I-94. The 142 year old church is the oldest church in Belleville and presently has 600 members. Rev. Spencer will head a church staff which includes a handicapped ministry and a parish visitor.

Rev. Spencer and his wife Sharon came to Grayling six and a half years ago on March 1, 1976. During his ministry here, the Michelson Memorial Church rebuilt their sanctuary following a fire in May of 1977. The church celebrated its centennial in Grayling on September of 1980. Under Rev. Spencer's ministry the church has expanded its family-centered program and developed a strong emphasis in Christian education under the direction of Ann Morford, Educational Associate, who joined the church staff in July, 1977.

During Rev. Spencer's time in Grayling he has been heavily involved in the community, taking a great interest in public schools, he was a member of Citizen's Acting for Responsible Education, an advisory committee of the Crawford-AuSable School District. He was also a member of the AuSable Ministerial Association, the Greater Grayling Chamber of Commerce, and the Grayling Kiwanis Club, which he served as a director for a number of years.

The Michelson Church will be having a farewell Open House for George and Sharon Spencer on Sunday, August 22nd at 7:00 p.m., at the Church. Friends from the community are invited to share in this Open House. Rev. Spencer's last sermon entitled "Picking Up The Option," will be Sunday, August 29th at both the 8:30 and 11:00 Worship hour.

Shawn Denton Places Second in State

The 1981-82 bowling season proved to be a good one for Shawn Denton, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Denton Jr. of Grayling, when she finished the year by taking second place in Michigan's Youth Bowling Association "State Singles" tournament in the Prep Girls Division. Shawn competed with girls all over the state at the tournament held in Westland where she totaled a series of 641, enough to earn her a second place title.

This is Shawn's fifth year in bowling. She spent two years as a substitute before she became a regular in the Grayling's Peanut League, and made the "All State" team. These last two years she has spent as a regular bowler in the prep girls division, where she has continued to add to her list of achievements. In April Shawn received trophies and awards at the American Legion Bowling Banquet for High Series, High Game, Perfect Attendance, Second Place Team, and Third Place Holiday Doubles.

At the 11th annual area YBA Awards Banquet held in July at the Grayling Holiday Inn, she was awarded an upper-northern state singles second place trophy. She also received a trophy for third place in the team event held this year at Boyne City. This was Shawn's fourth consecutive year to be honored at this area banquet.

Shawn topped off her year in August by attending the 19th annual "Parade of Champions" banquet and award presentation in Lansing. Here, she received a trophy and also a medallion for her second place finish in State Singles.

This was the second year that Shawn attended the "Parade of Champions" banquet. Also present were her parents and sister Shelly of Grayling, her brother Kent Denton and Lori Bennette of Lansing.

Tommy Dorsey's Big Band Sounds Swing Here Friday

There is something unique about the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra which is conducted by Buddy Morrow and will be appearing at the Grayling Holiday Inn on Friday, August 20 beginning at 8 p.m.

Its leader, Buddy Morrow, is a veteran of the "Big Band" era and himself a member of the original Dorsey brigade.

In retrospect and in big band history Tommy Dorsey's must be recognized as one of the greatest all-around dance bands of them all.

It could swing with the best of them, and no other band could come close to Tommy's when it came to playing ballads. Tommy Dorsey, "The Sentimental Gentleman of Swing," was a master at creating moods - warm, sentimental and forever musical moods - at superb dancing and listening tempos. And, what's more, Tommy selected arrangers who could sustain those moods - Paul Weston, Axel Stordahl and Sy Oliver. He show-cased singers who could project those moods wonderfully - Jack Leonard, Frank Sinatra, Jo Stafford, The Pied Pipers, and others.

Although it is a famous aggregation, people often expect to see the orchestra comprised of men the same vintage as those in the original band and are surprised at the number of younger members on board. Most of these younger musicians are graduates of the numerous fine music schools throughout the country and, strange as it may seem to some fans of the 1940's, are often older than were some of the original Dorsey-ites-Buddy was still in his teens when he was with Tommy Dorsey!

Dorsey has able representation in the extraordinary tombone playing of Buddy Morrow. Coupled with these solos, the Dorsey "sound" stresses the ensemble feel featuring the brass and reed sections, and this fine blend of instruments brings to life once more such great, undying original Tommy Dorsey arrangements as "Marie", "Song of India", "Opus No. 1", "I'll Never Smile Again", and many more.

Once this band starts to blow, there's no doubt that the drive and spirit behind the musicianship of the original Tommy Dorsey Orchestra reign once more. Good music knows no generation gap in its ability to swing, and swing it does under the direction of Buddy Morrow.

The $10 per person tickets for the concert and dance are available in Grayling at the Chamber of Commerce office, Glen's Market, and from John Naour, Jerry Parks, JoAnn Cox, Dorothy Allen, Angie Kirkum, Ernie Dawson, Marty VanDeVen, "Tike" Golnick and Sherrie Hanson.

Marine Lance Cpl. Lennie L. Pratt, son of Wert L. and Delores M. Pratt of Roscommon, has been awarded a Meritorious Mast while serving with 1st Battalion, 1st Marines, on Okinawa.

A Meritorious Mast is official recognition from an individual's commanding officer for superior individual performance. It is issued in the form of a bulletin published throughout the command, and a copy is entered in the individual's permanent service records.

Miniature Golf Tournament

Young and old alike will want to take this special opportunity to help a child, and have fun at the same time. The AuSable Valley Youth Services Bureau is sponsoring a miniature golf tournament on August 23, 1982, from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m.

This very special event would not be possible without the generous donation from Skip Madsen of his miniature golf course, located on M-72 East. We are asking for $1.50 per adult and $1.00 per child for the first game, half price for each additional game.

The prizes are for the following age classes: male 12 and over; male 11 and under; female 12 and over; female 11 and under.

Anyone interested contact Pam Kellogg or Marey Lozon at the Youth Services Bureau Office at 348-2841, ext. 262 or sign up at the Milltown Miniature Golf Course.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the friends & voters who were responsible for electing me to represent them as County Commissioner of District 7.

Many people assisted me, but particular recognition is deserving to Mrs. Rose Duley, Committee Treasurer.

My opponent, Mr. Harold "Dick" Raab is also to be commended for conducting a high level, gentlemanly campaign, thus proving that a political campaign need not resort to tactics or untruths that distort issues for voters.

Commonly Asked Food Preservation Questions and Answers

Gail Edwards,
Ext. Home Ec.

Home food preservation is a do-it-yourself project that involves following reliable and basic directions for successful results. But novices as well as experienced home canners have many questions. Some of the most commonly asked questions include:

Q. Which pressure canner is more accurate - the kind with the dial or the one with the weighted gauge?

A. Both are accurate if used and cared for according to the manufacturer's instructions. Some people like the numbers on a dial; others prefer the sight and sound (jiggling noise) of the weighted gauge. The dial control must be tested frequently for accuracy. The weighted gauge doesn't need this, but it must be cleaned occasionally for good service.

Q. What would cause a jar that was sealed during processing to become unsealed after a couple of days?

A. Probably underprocessing. Also there may have been some food on the sealing surface of the jar or the jar may have a hairline crack. Whatever the reason, broken seals may indicate spoilage and the contents of the jar should be destroyed.

Q. Do the black deposits sometimes found on the underside of the lid mean the food is unsafe to eat?

A. No, black deposits on the underside of canning lids are caused by natural compounds in some foods that corrode metal and make a brown or black deposit. This deposit is harmless.

Q. Can food be reprocessed if it was incorrectly processed or if lids failed to seal?

A. If no more than 24 hours have gone by since the food was processed, do one of the following:

1) Refrigerate the food and use it in a day or two.

2) Freeze the food. Drain vegetables before freezing.

3) Reprocess the food. Remove lids, empty food and liquid into a pan, heat to boiling, pack the clean hot jars and put on new lids. Process again for the full time. The quality of twice-processed food may be poor.

If more than 24 hours have gone by, discard the food. It may already have started to spoil.

Q. Doesn't the temperature of boiling water go higher the longer it boils?

A. No, boiling water temperature will never go higher than 212 degrees F.

Q. Can more water be added to a boiling water bath if the water boils down?

A. Yes. Add boiling water to keep at least 1 inch of briskly boiling water above the tops of jars.

An Open Letter from A Former Resident

Aug. 6, 1982

Dear Whitey:

This is a personal letter to you but I am asking you to share it with your readers. Remember when you and I used to go round and round over my letters "To the Editor"? Once you got so mad at me you said "Sal if you brought a letter in to me that simply said "Good Morning Whitey" I would not print it." I thought through the past years I had mellowed but I guess that is just not true.

Ten years ago this week we celebrated Grayling's 100th birthday. I was chairman and I can't remember when I ever worked so hard, started so many fights and had so much fun as I did then. EVERYBODY cooperated.

Most of all the men grew beards (I can't remember whether you did or not). Remember the jail on wheels? They tried so hard to catch me without my Centennial Pin on. They would have so loved to throw me in the "jug". I was so afraid they would that I even wore my pin to bed so I would not forget to put it on in the morning.

And the store down in the Woman's Club building operated by Lucille McNally and Eva Smith Gowe with a whole lot of helpers. And the Centennial Book "The First 100 Years" put out by Jack Mason.

What a wonderful book. Did you know that it now graces the shelves of many prominent Universities? Remember the parade that Rev. Paul Fredericks put together at the last minute and turned out to be the most fantastic parade ever shown in northern Michigan. And our goal if we made any money a museum the people of Crawford County. The old Grayling Township Hall. They gave it to us if we would move it off. The City of Grayling gave us the site to put it on. I watched all day long as they moved it. Watched Consumers Power and General Telephone raise and lower their lines as the little old building moved to its final place.

We had made a profit of over $1,000 on the Centennial and that helped defray expenses. It was just an empty shell when we got it there. But our chairman Charles and Lucille McNally got things rolling. Paint, new carpet, curtains, light fixtures, a rest room, make shift display cases. Then a membership drive to help us along.

Grayling people donated or loaned to us some of their most precious possessions. When we had to have someone to "mind the shop" and that is when our wonderful group of volunteers moved in to give us a hand. Just what would we have done without them? So many of them knew a lot of history about Crawford County and could tell visitors so many interesting things.

And then along came Elmer Fenton to take over as curator of the Museum. And what a fantastic job he did. 95 percent of the pictures in that museum were framed by Elmer. Mrs. Fenton told me that every year when they went to Texas, he haunted sales of all sorts to get picture frames. She laughingly told me that one year they had so many picture frames that she wore them around her neck coming back to Michigan. He has every church, old and new named and a history about each one. He has school groupings, everything. You name it, it's there.

We did not feel that our membership dues were out of order. We thought they were very low compared to all the social organizations in the county. And we did not expect the businessman to carry the burden. Being in business once I know how they hit the business people and expect them to carry the load.

And not once did we ask for donations or put on drives to help the museum. Just once we thought we would have a pancake breakfast to raise some money but we were told that another organization had that for a project and we could not have it. It was probably just as well though because we would have had no one to help us bake pancakes.

Now I read in the Avalanche that Elmer is going to resign after 11 years. I could hardly believe it but I can't blame him. That museum should have meant everything to the people of Crawford County. Our history is in there and wonderful memories. Yet there are people in Grayling and the county that have never given one cent to it and what is more probably half the county has never seen the inside of it.

Elmer took his time to take school children through and entertain them with wonderful stories. He arranged tours for outside citizens to come and look and they left amazed that a small place like Grayling could produce such an exhibition. Who did it? Elmer. The family of the late Herbert Stephan thought enough of it to place a wonderful memorial in his memory in that museum. Have you seen it? I thought not. We could use the money but did you ever hear of Moral support? That is what Elmer did not get.

His daily visits to the museum to give a hearty thanks to our volunteers and see to it that everything was running smoothly for them. I read the Avalanche every week and noticed that everyone has time and money for their favorite project but the museum is not among them.

This may sound funny and peculiar but I drive by there and the little building seems so lonely sitting back there all by itself and it seems to say "Hey look at me, I have a wealth of memories and momentos in here why don't you come in?" Well why don't you?

The sad part is we have a few wonderful board members that are loyal and then we have some that come about twice a year.

I am glad to see that a few interested people in Grayling are trying to get the Fish Hatchery going. I hope the interest lasts. When I was in the Chamber of Commerce that was one of the biggest attractions in the county for tourists. And you had better believe me when I say we need tourist dollars in Grayling.

I have just finished reading a letter to the Editor Mickie and Dennis Meyers part time residents of Grayling. They spoke of the Carnival being moved to another location this year. As I am no longer a resident of Grayling I can not say why. I will say this, that when I was president of the Chamber, carnivals were a sore subject at our meetings. Many were opposed as they took so much money from the county.

I did figure they brought pleasure to adults and children both so I guess I was on the fence. But when the carnival was there, I will say this. Yes the grass was tramped down and it grew back but that was not the problem. It was the slob that had no respect for property. Broken windows, threw beer cans all over the grounds, threw pampers in the wishing well, used our shrubbery for a toilet.

And now would you like to know who went down the next day and cleaned the entire mess? Elmer Fenton. Now I am mad Whitey and I will quit before you shut me up. But in closing let me say Shame on all you people that have forgotten your promise to help.

We can not let the museum close and we can not just let Elmer Fenton leave with a big hurt. Get on the phone, tell him you are sorry, tell him it was an over sight on your part that you did not get down there. Give him a pat on the back for the marvelous job he has done. Go down and take a look at the building.

Do you suppose if we all got together we could get him to stay on and just help us a bit with his wonderful wisdom. Let's give it a try. Wouldn't it be nice if the second week in August could be set aside for The Historical Museum week. I bet Mayor Thompson would write us a proclamation. Please all of you that read this think about it. Have you really helped the least little bit?

Thanks Whitey

Enlists In Air Force

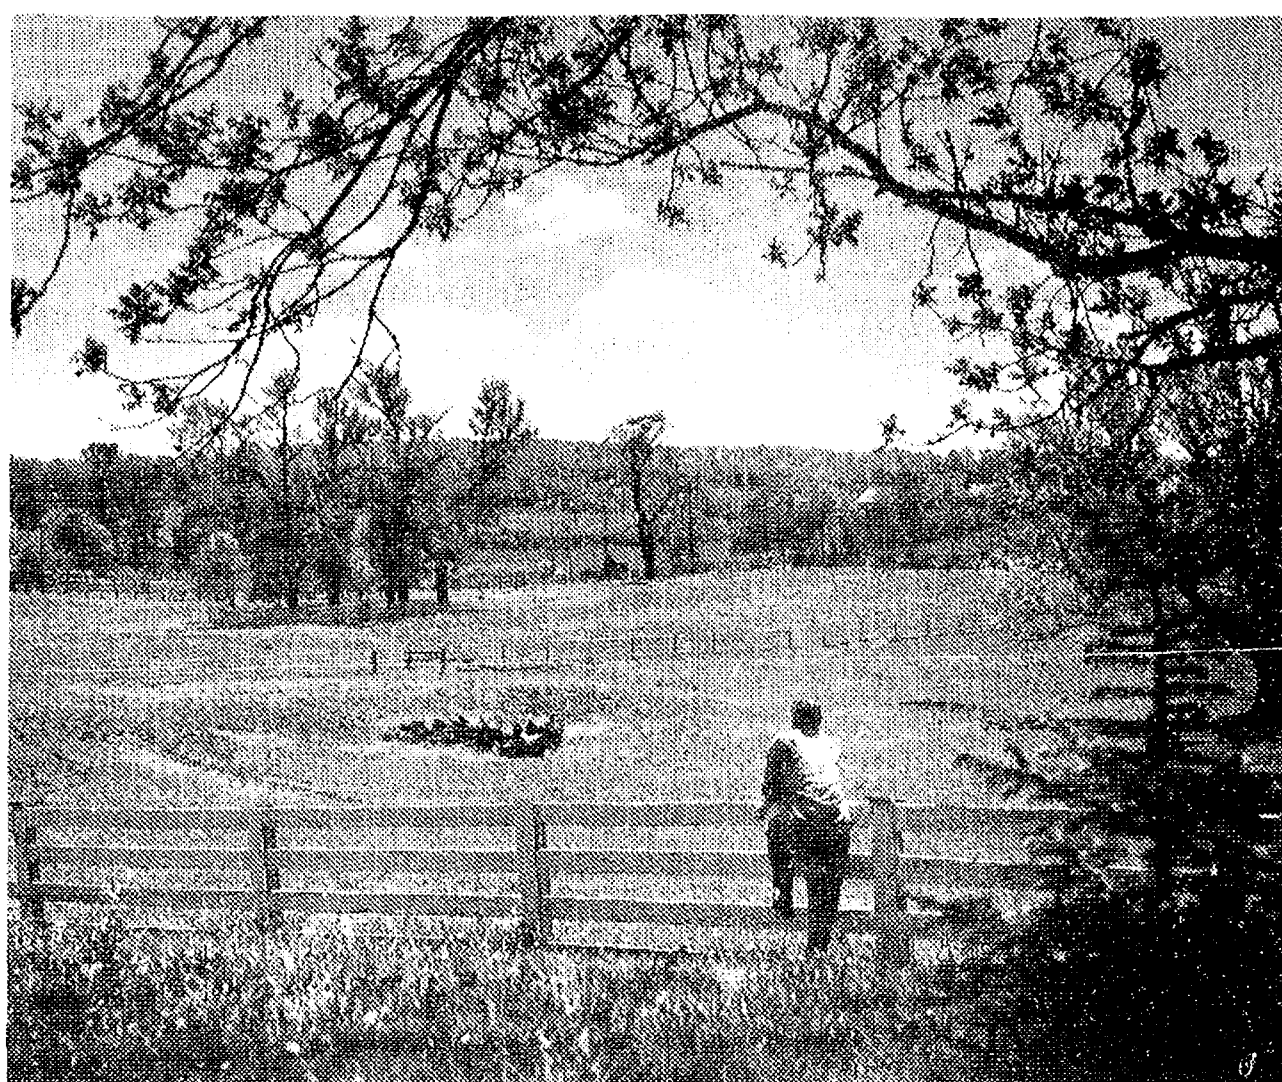

David L. Mansfield, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Mansfield, 601 Peninsular, has entered the United States Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program (DEP).

According to Staff Sergeant Christine M. Harr, the Air Force recruiter here, Mr. Mansfield's entry into the DEP serves two purposes. First, it allows the Air Force to schedule an opening for him to attend basic training and be assigned to a job or skill area. Second, the DEP enables Mr. Mansfield, a 1980 graduate of Grayling High School to wrap up his personal affairs before leaving home.

Mr. Mansfield will enter the Regular Air Force on December 8th, 1982. Following graduation from six-week basic training course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, he will receive technical training as an Administration Specialist and be assigned to an Air Force duty station.

TAKE THE LONG VIEW

Who doesn't dream, sometimes? Who doesn't stand gazing into the future, picturing that new house, that graduation day, that wedding ceremony, that new car . . . the thousand and one dreams that man holds in his heart?

We realize that a worthwhile life must contain more than just material satisfactions. Without a confident frame of mind, our future will be nothing but tension and uncertainty. Where can we find this inner feeling of courage that will make things easier for us every hour of every day?

Millions of people find it in the Christian faith. The apostle Paul said that he was strengthened in everything he did by faith in Christ . . . and this truth is constantly being rediscovered by men and women urgently in need of something they can trust.

Faith is the key to peace of mind. With faith, you will be able to move mountains of frustration.

Merry L. Meredith, the Officer's Club Manager at the Camp Grayling Hanson Military Reservation, was recently awarded the Ohio Distinguished Service Medal by Major General Robert Teater, the Ohio Area Command commander.

Meredith received the award for meritorious achievement in the performance of outstanding service to the Ohio National Guard.

She was especially cited for assistance during the 107th Armored Cavalry Regiment's 1980 Annual Training period. Meredith provided personal support and assistance to the wife and family of an officer in the regiment's second squadron who had been critically injured in an accident.

AuSable Property Owners Hold Annual Meeting

The 16th Annual Meeting of the AuSable River System Property Owners Association was recently held at the Shoppenagon Motor Hotel in Grayling and was presided over by President James J. Robison.

A highlight of the meeting was a discussion of the long debated River Use Rules by Dave Smethurst, Chairman of the Michigan Council of Trout Unlimited. Neither T.U. nor the canoe liveries were reported as being in favor of the proposed rough draft of the rules.

There was heated objection when it seemed that the conflict was between trout fishermen represented by T.U. and the Recreational Canoe Association with no regard for the important position of the riparian owner who is probably a trout fisherman and a canoe, or riverboat user.

Robison has been appointed to the Ad Hoc Committee of T.U. to study River Use Rules and a committee of the Association was appointed to work with him as follows: Doug Butler, Clare Miller, Charles Raches, Fred Scott and Dick Smith. New directors were reported elected for the term which expires in 1985 as follows: Robert C. Franklin, Charles A. Raches and Virginia L. Shaw.

William H. Palmer was elected as director for a second term and was also elected as President for the next year. Other officers are Raches, Vice President and Abner C. Sager was re-elected as Secretary, Treasurer.

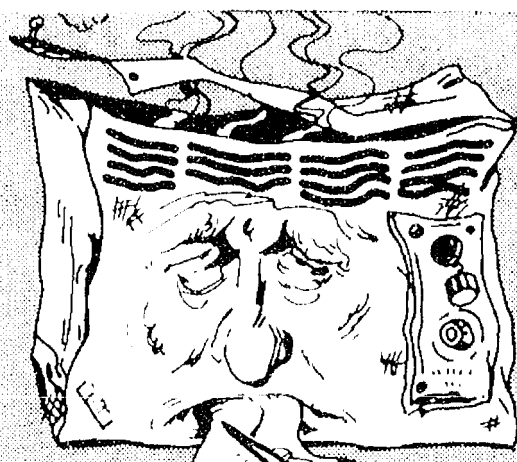

President Palmer has announced other committee appointments as follows: Wild and Scenic River Study—Robison, Kaczynski, Miles, Offenbecher and Raches; AuSable River System Planning—Stahl, Butler, Joe Dailey, Fellows and Scott; George W. Mason River Retreat—Foley, Griffith and Wert; Membership—Gruitch and Shaw; Nominating—Robison and Raches; Publicity—Sager and Joseph.

The Association will continue for the second year, to participate in financing an extra patrol of the rivers by the Sheriff Department as the Grayling Canoe Liveries.
